ANCIENT and ROMAN COPPER and BRASS COINS.

In the description any rated "good," are plain enough to be identified by a person unacquainted with them. We state legend all on the planchet when it so occurs, as they are more frequently found with only a part of the legends on the planchet, and also the size of the coin instead 1st, 2nd and 3rd brass. I have been assisted in this classification by Prof. A. S. Binion, of this city; they are warranted genuine.

232. Faustina, Junior. Ob. "Faustina Augusta," bust to right, wearing a stola. Rev., "Hilaritas" Joy standing to left, holding a palm in right hand, and a cornucopia in her left. "S. C." in the field. Legend not all on planchet, very good, size 18.
